Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The entire course curriculum for degree programme of the institution is designed by following the University Guidelines. However, the curriculum for certificate courses are designed by the institution. The planning and documentation is done accordingly;

Planning:

1. Council of the Head of the Departments (HODs) - The Council of the HODs decides the various academic and the nonacademic programmes to be carried out in each semester.
2. Annual Prospectus - Information about the admission process and courses offered are disseminated through the prospectus.
3. Academic Calendar - The schedule for the entire year is prepared in the academic calendar.
4. Class Routine: The routine committee prepares the master time table for both even and odd semesters separately.
5. Teachers Diary - The faculty members maintain a teacher's diary for day to day activity.
6. Assignments - The students are consistently evaluated by allotting assignments.
7. Class Test - Regular class tests and surprise tests are conducted at the completion of each unit by the concerned faculty.

Implementation:

To ensure effective curriculum delivery, the institution follows the methods of Guest Lecture, Parent-Teacher Meet, Self-Evaluation of the Students, Field Trips, Departmental and Inter-Departmental Seminars, Language Laboratory and Uses of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) etc.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous

Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Since, the College is affiliated to Dibrugarh University it is obliged to adhere to the Academic calendar prepared by the University in letter and spirit. The Academic calendar which is posted in the University website is widely circulated to the Departments by the IQAC of the College and the same is also uploaded in the College website. In accordance with the Academic calendar, sessional tests are organised and monitored by the Examination Committee of the College. Continuous internal assessment is also done based on the norms and time frames mentioned in the Academic calendar. The directives of the Academic calendar are also informed and discussed in the staff meetings headed by the Principal of the College from time to time. To ensure quality academic standards, transparency in procedures is maintained. Although there is little that the College can do on its own other than adhering to the directives of the Academic Calendar, however, there are some assessments that the Departments conduct to ensure quality academic standards. These include- holding regular class tests to assess learning aptitude of the students, organising quizzes on topic covered in respective departments within a month, holding frequent group discussions.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Strategies adopted to assess the learning levels:

- Regular Class tests are organized.
- Two sessional examinations held in each semester also help to identify the weaker students.
- The teachers also identify the slow learners from the Group discussions.
- Students are required to submit home assignments through which their writing skills are assessed.

Strategies adopted for the slow learners to improve their comprehension levels and selfconfidence:

- Special chances are given to repeat their examinations.
- Students, with poor performance in group discussion and seminars are given special guidance by the teachers.
- Special tutorial and remedial classes are organized.
- Answer scripts of the meritorious students are shown to the weaker students .
- Slow learners are taken care of by their mentors for personal guidance.
- The question papers of the external examinations of previous years are discussed in the classes.
- Organizes special programmes for time management and paper writing skills.

Strategies adopted for advanced learners:

- Extra reference books are provided for advance studies.
- Encourages to participate in workshops and seminars.
- Special career guidance and counseling programmes are organized.
- Teachers supervise them to prepare research papers, project reports etc .
- The departments organizes "Students as Tutor Programme" .

- Special merit fellowships are granted from the college.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Experiential Learning:

The institution follows the following methods for experiential learning:

- Practical classes and laboratory works are arranged in the master time table.
- The students undertake project works and surveys to obtain first-hand information of the specific topics of the curricula.
- Supervision to prepare reports from the surveys .
- Socioeconomic surveys in neighbouring areas are conducted regularly.
- Field works and excursions are conducted on regular basis.

Participative Learning:

- Seminars and group discussions, workshops are organized regularly.
- The departments of the college conduct "Student as Tutor Programme" which also helps the students to share their knowledge.

- Add on certificate courses for skill enhancement are introduced in the college.
- Event management opportunities are given to the students through departmental forums.

Problem Solving Methodologies:

- The syllabi of departments of Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and Computer Science are taught in such a way that the students acquire the skills of scientific problem solving techniques.
- Subject specific software such as Matlab, MySQL, Turbo C, ARC GIS, ILWIS etc. are used as problem solving tools in the departments of Mathematics, Computer Science and Geography.
- Socio-economic surveys conducted regularly.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

The use of ICT is a regular practice in the institution. In spite of the shortage of smart rooms, the teachers make optimum use of the available tools for effective teaching learning process.

The teachers use the projectors, personal laptops, tablets, Web Cameras etc to teach the students. The college provides the Wi-Fi and internet facilities along with the N-List subscription to access the learning resources.

The faculty of science stream uses the software like Mega, DNASP and DAMBE etc. Video animations are also used to share the scientific information.

The faculty members use the Microsoft office tools and Google drive, email, G forms, Google docs etc to prepare the study materials, create assignment etc. Whatsapp is another media through which the faculty organizes the students and share study materials, tutorial videos, and tutorial audios.

The online classes are conducted through the virtual media platforms like Zoom, Google Meet and Skype etc. Besides these, Google classrooms are also created and used effectively for creating materials, assignments etc.

During the present pandemic situation, the use of ICT enabled tools has become more frequent.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The college adopts the following measures to make the system transparent and robust :

- Two sessional examinations are conducted centrally by an examination committee according to the schedules given in the academic calendar of the college.
- The dates of various internal assessment examinations are displayed well ahead of time in departmental noticeboard.
- The marks obtained in each of the criteria, namely attendance, seminars/group discussions and two sessional examinations are displayed in the departmental notice boards.
- There is provision for counter checking of marks by the students.
- To ensure transparency in evaluation of seminar presentations and group discussions, the faculty members from other departments are also invited to attend group discussions and seminars of a particular department.
- The students are given the liberty to interact with the teachers and mentors to resolve any grievances regarding the assessments.
- The weaker students are given another chance to improve their performance in sessional examinations, group discussions and seminars.
- The class tests, Quiz, oral tests, surprise tests, home assignments etc. are held in the departments as frequently as possible.
- Oral questions are asked during practical sessions to evaluate the students.
- The marks of the sessional examinations are shown to the gurdians/parents to maintain transparency.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

Mechanism for redressal of grievances related to internal examinations:

- The answer scripts of the sessional examinations are shown to the students for self-evaluations.

- In case of any doubt regarding evaluation, the students can freely discuss their problems with the respective teachers.
- Answer scripts are also distributed among the students for cross examination. This practice helps to a great extent in reducing the grievances regarding assessment of the answer scripts.
- Grievances related to marks obtained by students in seminars and group discussions are solved in the class itself through open discussion among the students and the teachers.
- Total attendances of the students are shown to the students as well as to their guardians, so that in case of any grievances related to marks allotted for attendance can be resolved efficiently. In case of any grievance related to internal examination the students can also approach grievance cell for redressal of their problems.
- The students can also approach their respective mentors for redressal of grievances related to internal examination.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

The institution follows the following mechanisms to state the programme and course outcomes to the teachers and the students:

- The college organizes seminars, workshops etc to orient the teachers about the new courses.
- The newly appointed teachers are encouraged to undergo orientation/induction programmes organized by the University and the Human Resource Development Centres.
- The institution encourages the teachers to participate in refreshers courses, Short Term Courses regularly.
- The College library subscribes the Journals like University News and bulletins published by different organizations through which the teachers can have information about the changes and new vistas of different courses.
- The Programme and Course outcomes are uploaded in the college website through which the aspirants of the programmes can have an understanding before admission.

- On the very day of the commencement of the classes the institution organizes the orientation/induction programmes for the freshers and explains the programme and course outcomes along with the internal and external examination system.
- The teachers of the respective departments spend at least one hour to explain the objectives of the course and the outcomes at the introductory classes.
- The Career Counselling Cell of the institution guides the students about the courses and the career avenues.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

. The evaluation is done by following methods:

- The results of the external examinations conducted by the university are used as measures to assess program outcome, program specific outcome and course outcome.
- The course outcomes are measured on the basis of the marks obtained by the students.
- Internal Assessment conducted by procedure prescribed by the university which helps to observe knowledge and skills of the students.
- Viva voce of Practical Examinations is also used as a tool to measure the learning outcomes.
- Students seminars and group discussions are organized to assess the course outcomes.
- The students are assigned home assignments on a particular topic/ course to measure their knowledge and skills.
- Class Tests are also served as tools for measuring the attainment of course outcomes.
- The departments frequently organize quizzes among the students to map their knowledge of the subject.
- Feedback reports of students, alumni, employers and guardians.

- Project and Field Study Reports prepared by the students also act as tools to measure the learning outcomes.
- The carrier counseling cell of the college keeps records of the students getting placements through various campus and off-campus interviews. These records also serve to access the attainment level of program outcomes.

3.3 - Extension Activities

3.3.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

The college promotes a well knit neighborhood community network in which students actively participate for social development. The college undertakes extension activities that aim at gender empowerment, environmental protection, political awareness and health consciousness.

The college organizes several programmes for sensitizing the students on different societal issues. Programmes on International Women's Day, observation of Human Rights Day, Voters day, Saraswati Puja, Teachers day, Children's day, flood donation camp, donation for the treatment of the poor students, plantation drive on the occasion of Environment Day, celebration of energy conservation week etc provide ample opportunities to bring to light the social issues and make the students responsible for working on the realization of those causes.

The institution also works for the holistic development of the students. The college organizes Yoga Camps, Self defense workshops and Annual college week regularly.

Extension and other activities initiated by the college have made significant impact both on the community and the students. Students learn the civic activities as well as their responsibilities towards society to which they belong.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

VISION- Empowerment of women in all aspects so as to make them fit to compete with their male counterparts in the new world order.

MISSION- Empowering women through higher education by inculcating the innate talents and qualities and unfolding potentialities through curricular and co-curricular activities.

Governance:

- Targeted towards empowerment of the women.
- The representative of the students and guardians in the decision making bodies of the college.
- Preference to the programs which unfold the potentialities of the students.

Perspective plan:

The college prepares both long term and short-term perspective plans.

The long-term plan includes the planning and development of infrastructure and introduction of new academic programs catering to the vision of the college.

The short-term plan covers the man power planning, academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and extension works to be carried out for the women of the neighboring area.

Teachers' participation:

Teachers are well represented in the important committees such as Governing Body, Council of Heads (HODs), IQAC, Examination committee, Construction committee, Admission committee, Hostel committee etc.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

Response:

The college adopts the policy of decentralization and delegation before defining and implementing the strategic plans.

Response:

The college adopts the policy of decentralization and delegation before defining and implementing the strategic plans. Most of the strategic plans are implemented through ad-hoc committees. It is also mandatory to submit the utilization of funds or audited statement after the completion of the task.

Case study:

In 2020-2021 the college constituted an admission committee before the enrolment of B.A. /B.Sc first semester students at the meeting of the Head of the Departments on 20-08-2021. The meeting also defined the strategies for advertisement, online enrolment, and publication of College Prospectus etc. Accordingly the admission process was completed on 11-09-2021. As soon as the admission process was completed, the committee handed over the cash to the Principal of the college along with the supporting documents.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

The audits of the college are done in two layers as follows:

1. Internal audit: The audit of the accounts of the college is done every year. The authority appoints a local firm for conducting internal audit and accordingly the firm checks thoroughly the financial transactions of the college and prepares a report every year. The report is then placed before the governing body for approval. If there is any audit objection in the report then it is settled by the Governing Body through discussion.

2. External audit: - The audit of the accounts of the college is also done by an external government authority in every 3 to 4 years. The college invites the office of the Accountant General to do the financial audit of the college. Accordingly they audit the account and submit the report to the higher authority of the AG office. The audit objection if any is settled by the college authority with the help of AG office.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

As per the directive of NAAC the IQAC of the college was set up in 2004 .The main objective and the responsibility of IQAC is to ensure the post accreditation quality sustenance and the overall consistent quality improvement of the institution.

The IQAC sets its goals towards quality enhancement of the academic as well as the overall environment of the institution and accordingly chalks out necessary plans for that at the beginning of the year.

Two practices in the college that have come out as IQAC initiatives are as follows:

1. Publication of an International Journal:

The IQAC felt that the quality of education enhances significantly with increased research work of the teachers. To encourage the teachers, the IQAC published a peer reviewed multidisciplinary International research journal - 'INTUIT' in 2012. Starting from 2012, the journal has been published every year till 2019.

2. Training on Self Defence:

Since the days of NIRVAYA incidence, the institution felt for the need of the training on self defence. In 2012, IQAC organized a 7 Day Workshop on self defence. Now this has been organized regularly with Certified boxer Rani Chakraborty as the coach.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

- Response:
- Teaching learning reviews: The teaching and learning is the core area of the activities of college .The authorities therefore takes measures through IQAC to improve the teaching learning process through various ways.
- Planning of academic and the co and extra curricular activities by preparing the academic calender . Monitoring the progress and timely completion of the syllabus.

- Mid-term examinations, group discussions and home assignment ,class tests etc.
- The evaluation of teachers' performances through students' feedback.
- Teaching learning Reforms:- The college has been constantly trying to improve its teaching learning environment. Based on the reviews of the teaching learning process the IQAC finds out following reformative measures to improve the prevailing teaching learning process.
- Remedial classes for weaker students.
- Special classes to mentor the students.
- The IQAC in its meetings asks the teachers to complete the syllabus before the second sessional examination as far as possible.
- Students are encouraged for active participation in seminar, workshops etc. so that they can have the idea about the recent developments of the subjects.
- They are also taken for industry visit, educational excursion to provide first-hand knowledge

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The entire course curriculum for degree programme of the institution is designed by following the University Guidelines. However, the curriculum for certificate courses are designed by the institution. The planning and documentation is done accordingly;

Planning:

1. Council of the Head of the Departments(HODs) - The Council of the HODs decides the various academic and the nonacademic programmes to be carried out in each semester.
2. Annual Prospectus - Information about the admission process and courses offered are disseminated through the prospectus.
3. Academic Calendar - The schedule for the entire year is prepared in the academic calendar.
4. Class Routine: The routine committee prepares the master time table for both even and odd semesters seperately.
5. Teachers Diary - The faculty members maintain a teacher's diary for day to day activity.
6. Assignments - The students are consistently evaluated by allotting assignments.
7. Class Test - Regular class tests and surprise tests are conducted at the completion of each unit by the concerned faculty.

Implementation:

To ensure effective curriculum delivery, the institution follows the methods of Guest Lecture, Parent-Teacher Meet, Self-Evaluation of the Students, Field Trips, Departmental and Inter-

Departmental Seminars, Language Laboratory and Uses of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) etc.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Since, the College is affiliated to Dibrugarh University it is obliged to adhere to the Academic calendar prepared by the University in letter and spirit. The Academic calendar which is posted in the University website is widely circulated to the Departments by the IQAC of the College and the same is also uploaded in the College website. In accordance with the Academic calendar, sessional tests are organised and monitored by the Examination Committee of the College. Continuous internal assessment is also done based on the norms and time frames mentioned in the Academic calendar. The directives of the Academic calendar are also informed and discussed in the staff meetings headed by the Principal of the College from time to time. To ensure quality academic standards, transparency in procedures is maintained. Although there is little that the College can do on its own other than adhering to the directives of the Academic Calendar, however, there are some assessments that the Departments conduct to ensure quality academic standards. These include- holding regular class tests to assess learning aptitude of the students, organising quizzes on topic covered in respective departments within a month, holding frequent group discussions.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Strategies adopted to assess the learning levels:

- Regular Class tests are organized.
- Two sessional examinations held in each semester also help to identify the weaker students.
- The teachers also identify the slow learners from the Group discussions.
- Students are required to submit home assignments through which their writing skills are assessed.

Strategies adopted for the slow learners to improve their comprehension levels and selfconfidence:

- Special chances are given to repeat their examinations.
- Students, with poor performance in group discussion and seminars are given special guidance by the teachers.
- Special tutorial and remedial classes are organized.
- Answer scripts of the meritorious students are shown to the weaker students .
- Slow learners are taken care of by their mentors for personal guidance.
- The question papers of the external examinations of previous years are discussed in the classes.
- Organizes special programmes for time management and paper writing skills.

Strategies adopted for advanced learners:

- Extra reference books are provided for advance studies.

- Encourages to participate in workshops and seminars.
- Special career guidance and counseling programmes are organized.
- Teachers supervise them to prepare research papers, project reports etc .
- The departments organizes "Students as Tutor Programme" .
- Special merit fellowships are granted from the college.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Experiential Learning:

The institution follows the following methods for experiential learning:

- Practical classes and laboratory works are arranged in the master time table.
- The students undertake project works and surveys to obtain first-hand information of the specific topics of the curricula.
- Supervision to prepare reports from the surveys .
- Socioeconomic surveys in neighbouring areas are conducted regularly.
- Field works and excursions are conducted on regular basis.

Participative Learning:

- Seminars and group discussions, workshops are organized regularly.
- The departments of the college conduct "Student as Tutor Programme" which also helps the students to share their knowledge.
- Add on certificate courses for skill enhancement are introduced in the college.
- Event management opportunities are given to the students through departmental forums.

Problem Solving Methodologies:

- The syllabi of departments of Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and Computer Science are taught in such a way that the students acquire the skills of scientific problem solving techniques.
- Subject specific software such as Matlab, MySQL, Turbo C, ARC GIS, ILWIS etc. are used as problem solving tools in the departments of Mathematics, Computer Science and Geography.
- Socio-economic surveys conducted regularly.
- Life skill education is provided through Yoga, Meditation and Martial art etc.
- NSS wing also organizes programmes on burning issues.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

The use of ICT is a regular practice in the institution. In spite of the shortage of smart rooms, the teachers make optimum use of the available tools for effective teaching learning process.

The teachers use the projectors, personal laptops, tablets, Web

Cameras etc to teach the students. The college provides the Wi-Fi and internet facilities along with the N-List subscription to access the learning resources.

The faculty of science stream uses the software like Mega, DNASP and DAMBE etc. Video animations are also used to share the scientific information.

The faculty members use the Microsoft office tools and Google drive, email, G forms, Google docs etc to prepare the study materials, create assignment etc. Whatsapp is another media through which the faculty organizes the students and share study materials, tutorial videos, and tutorial audios.

The online classes are conducted through the virtual media platforms like Zoom, Google Meet and Skype etc. Besides these, Google classrooms are also created and used effectively for creating materials, assignments etc.

During the present pandemic situation, the use of ICT enabled tools has become more frequent.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The college adopts the following measures to make the system transparent and robust :

- Two sessional examinations are conducted centrally by an examination committee according to the schedules given in the academic calendar of the college.
- The dates of various internal assessment examinations are displayed well ahead of time in departmental noticeboard.
- The marks obtained in each of the criteria, namely attendance, seminars/group discussions and two sessional examinations are displayed in the departmental notice boards.
- There is provision for counter checking of marks by the students.
- To ensure transparency in evaluation of seminar presentations and group discussions, the faculty members from other departments are also invited to attend group discussions and seminars of a particular department.
- The students are given the liberty to interact with the teachers and mentors to resolve any grievances regarding the assessments.
- The weaker students are given another chance to improve their performance in sessional examinations, group discussions and seminars.
- The class tests, Quiz, oral tests, surprise tests, home assignments etc. are held in the departments as frequently as possible.
- Oral questions are asked during practical sessions to evaluate the students.
- The marks of the sessional examinations are shown to the gurdians/parents to maintain transparency.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

Mechanism for redressal of grievances related to internal examinations:

- The answer scripts of the sessional examinations are shown to the students for self-evaluations.
- In case of any doubt regarding evaluation, the students can freely discuss their problems with the respective teachers.
- Answer scripts are also distributed among the students for cross examination. This practice helps to a great extent in reducing the grievances regarding assessment of the answer scripts.
- Grievances related to marks obtained by students in seminars and group discussions are solved in the class itself through open discussion among the students and the teachers.
- Total attendances of the students are shown to the students as well as to their guardians, so that in case of any grievances related to marks allotted for attendance can be resolved efficiently. In case of any grievance related to internal examination the students can also approach grievance cell for redressal of their problems.
- The students can also approach their respective mentors for redressal of grievances related to internal examination.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

The institution follows the following mechanisms to state the programme and course outcomes to the teachers and the students:

- The college organizes seminars, workshops etc to orient the teachers about the new courses.
- The newly appointed teachers are encouraged to undergo orientation/induction programmes organized by the University and the Human Resource Development Centres.

- The institution encourages the teachers to participate in refresher courses, Short Term Courses regularly.
- The College library subscribes the Journals like University News and bulletins published by different organizations through which the teachers can have information about the changes and new vistas of different courses.
- The Programme and Course outcomes are uploaded in the college website through which the aspirants of the programmes can have an understanding before admission.
- On the very day of the commencement of the classes the institution organizes the orientation/induction programmes for the freshers and explains the programme and course outcomes along with the internal and external examination system.
- The teachers of the respective departments spend at least one hour to explain the objectives of the course and the outcomes at the introductory classes.
- The Career Counselling Cell of the institution guides the students about the courses and the career avenues.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

. The evaluation is done by following methods:

- The results of the external examinations conducted by the university are used as measures to assess program outcome, program specific outcome and course outcome.
- The course outcomes are measured on the basis of the marks obtained by the students.
- Internal Assessment conducted by procedure prescribed by the university which helps to observe knowledge and skills of the students.

- Viva voce of Practical Examinations is also used as a tool to measure the learning outcomes.
- Students seminars and group discussions are organized to assess the course outcomes.
- The students are assigned home assignments on a particular topic/ course to measure their knowledge and skills.
- Class Tests are also served as tools for measuring the attainment of course outcomes.
- The departments frequently organize quizzes among the students to map their knowledge of the subject.
- Feedback reports of students, alumni, employers and guardians.
- Project and Field Study Reports prepared by the students also act as tools to measure the learning outcomes.
- The carrier counseling cell of the college keeps records of the students getting placements through various campus and off-campus interviews. These records also serve to access the attainment level of program outcomes.

3.3 - Extension Activities

3.3.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

The college promotes a well knit neighborhood community network in which students actively participate for social development. The college undertakes extension activities that aim at gender empowerment, environmental protection, political awareness and health consciousness.

The college organizes several programmes for sensitizing the students on different societal issues. Programmes on International Women's Day, observation of Human Rights Day, Voters day, Saraswati Puja, Teachers day, Children's day, flood donation camp, donation for the treatment of the poor students, plantation drive on the occasion of Environment Day, celebration of energy conservation week etc provide ample opportunities to bring to light the social issues and make the students responsible for working on the realization of those causes.

The institution also works for the holistic development of the students. The college organizes Yoga Camps, Self defense workshops and Annual college week regularly.

Extension and other activities initiated by the college have made significant impact both on the community and the students. Students learn the civic activities as well as their responsibilities towards society to which they belong.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

VISION- Empowerment of women in all aspects so as to make them fit to compete with their male counterparts in the new world order.

MISSION- Empowering women through higher education by inculcating the innate talents and qualities and unfolding potentialities through curricular and co-curricular activities.

Governance:

- Targeted towards empowerment of the women.
- The representative of the students and guardians in the decision making bodies of the college.
- Preference to the programs which unfold the potentialities of the students.

Perspective plan:

The college prepares both long term and short-term perspective plans.

The long-term plan includes the planning and development of infrastructure and introduction of new academic programs catering to the vision of the college.

The short-term plan covers the man power planning, academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and extension works to be carried out for the women of the neighboring area.

Teachers' participation:

Teachers are well represented in the important committees such as Governing Body, Council of Heads (HODs), IQAC, Examination committee, Construction committee, Admission committee, Hostel committee etc.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

Response:

The college adopts the policy of decentralization and delegation before defining and implementing the strategic plans.

Response:

The college adopts the policy of decentralization and delegation before defining and implementing the strategic plans. Most of the strategic plans are implemented through ad-hoc committees. It is also mandatory to submit the utilization of funds or audited statement after the completion of the task.

Case study:

In 2020-2021 the college constituted an admission committee before the enrolment of B.A. /B.Sc first semester students at the meeting of the Head of the Departments on 20-08-2021. The meeting also defined the strategies for advertisement, online enrolment, and publication of College Prospectus etc. Accordingly the admission process was completed on 11-09-2021. As soon as the admission process was completed, the committee handed over the cash to the Principal of the college along with the supporting documents.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

The audits of the college are done in two layers as follows:

1. Internal audit: The audit of the accounts of the college is done every year. The authority appoints a local firm for conducting internal audit and accordingly the firm checks thoroughly the financial transactions of the college and prepares a report every year. The report is then placed before the governing body for approval. If there is any audit objection in the report then it is settled by the Governing Body through discussion.

2. External audit: - The audit of the accounts of the college is also done by an external government authority in every 3 to 4 years. The college invites the office of the Accountant General to do the financial audit of the college. Accordingly they audit the account and submit the report to the higher authority of the AG office. The audit objection if any is settled by the college authority with the help of AG office.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

As per the directive of NAAC the IQAC of the college was set up in 2004 .The main objective and the responsibility of IQAC is to ensure the post accreditation quality sustenance and the overall consistent quality improvement of the institution.

The IQAC sets its goals towards quality enhancement of the academic as well as the overall environment of the institution and accordingly chalks out necessary plans for that at the beginning of the year.

Two practices in the college that have come out as IQAC initiatives are as follows:

1. Publication of an International Journal:

The IQAC felt that the quality of education enhances significantly with increased research work of the teachers. To encourage the teachers, the IQAC published a peer reviewed multidisciplinary International research journal - 'INTUIT' in 2012. Starting from 2012, the journal has been published every year till 2019.

2. Training on Self Defence:

Since the days of NIRVAYA incidence, the institution felt for the need of the training on self defence. In 2012, IQAC organized a 7 Day Workshop on self defence. Now this has been organized regularly with Certified boxer Rani Chakraborty as the coach.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

- Response:
- Teaching learning reviews: The teaching and learning is the core area of the activities of college .The authorities therefore takes measures through IQAC to improve the teaching learning process through various ways.
- Planning of academic and the co and extra curricular activities by preparing the academic calender . Monitoring the progress and timely completion of the syllabus.
- Mid-term examinations, group discussions and home assignment ,class tests etc.
- The evaluation of teachers' performances through students' feedback.
- Teaching learning Reforms:- The college has been constantly trying to improve its teaching learning environment. Based on the reviews of the teaching learning process the IQAC finds out following reformative measures to improve the prevailing teaching learning process.
- Remedial classes for weaker students.
- Special classes to mentor the students.
- The IQAC in its meetings asks the teachers to complete the syllabus before the second sessional examination as far as possible.
- Students are encouraged for active participation in seminar, workshops etc. so that they can have the idea about the recent developments of the subjects.
- They are also taken for industry visit, educational excursion to provide first-hand knowledge

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

The institution has composite student strength from various cultural, regional, linguistic, religious and socio-economic backgrounds. The college provides a platform in which all the students of diverse background are assimilated.

The Institution provides optimum scope for linguistic studies in subjects like English, Assamese, Hindi, Bengali and Sanskrit. The bilingual teaching methods are practiced to provide education to students of different linguistic background. The Department of Assamese annually celebrates Matribhasha Divas on 21st February for the development of mother tongue of the state. The annual College magazine DCBIAN keeps the separate sections for the students of different linguistic groups to express the thoughts through creative writings. The IQAC also publishes an international multilingual Journal- INTUIT which accommodates the research based articles, research papers from different linguistic studies. In the college week, cultural and literary competitions are organized to develop the talents of the students.

The Institution also provides ample scope to accommodate the students from socio economically backward classes. Seats are reserved for the students of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes, Tea Garden Communities, Minorities and Economically Backward Classes as per reservation norms of GOI and the State Government.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution always strives for creating a democratic culture among the students and employees. The important decisions on administrative and academic issues are decided by the consent of the majority. The office bearers of different committees, societies and forums are either elected or selected on the basis of majority consent. Students Union Body is constituted with the directly elected representatives of the students.

The institution observes national as well as international festivals every year to sensitize the students and employees to constitutional values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens. The institution observes Constitution day, Voters day, Republic Day and Independence Day every year. Besides the National festivals, important International red letter days such as Human Rights Day, International Women's day, International Yoga day etc. are observed regularly.

Courses on Professional ethics and Environmental ethics are included in the syllabus of the UG programmes. Besides this, students are given the opportunity to learn the matters of professional ethics by organizing the academic and cultural events such as College Week, Fresher's Social, and Farewell etc. They are taught to maintain the minutes of the meetings of the departmental forums, rapporteur the sessions of deliberations, workshops, and seminars etc.
